[1] It premiered on 8 October 2012 on SAB TV, and stars Dev Joshi in the titular role.[2] It is produced by Optimystix Entertainment with screenplay by Rohit Malhotra.[3][4] The show aired for 1111 episodes and went off air on 4 November 2016.[5][6] The show is being aired on Sony SAB's sister channel, Sony PAL since 2015.[7] Baalveer Returns, a sequel, starring Dev Joshi again, this time along with Vansh Sayani, premiered on 10 September 2019 continuing the story with a 3-year leap with major changes in the positive-based characters.[8] Plot In the universe, there is a planet called Pari Lok (Fairy Realm), where all the good fairies reside. Each of them has a different ability and each fairy is named after her special powers. The mother and leader of the fairies is the Queen Fairy - Rani Pari, who is the head of the power of righteousness in the whole multiverse. Below her, is a cabinet of important fairies (Pari Sabha) who maintain various departments of Pari Lok under her guidance. On the other side, there is an evil fairy, Bhayankar Pari and her sidekick, Tauba-Tauba. They always plot to create terror on Earth, due to which Rani Pari assigns different fairies at particular locations on Earth. The year is 2012 AD, two fairies visit Rani Pari and inform her about the strange behaviour of children of Earth, who seemed to have been influenced by an evil power. Rani Pari assures them that she will try to find out about this and sends them back. On the same day, in night-time, all the fairies gather at the entrance of Rani Mahal (Royal Palace) due to the scary behaviour of Earth's children. The Pari Lok is in a state of alarm due to havoc on the Earth. Rani Pari manages to placate them, but at the same time, Bhayankar Pari enters and creates an environment of terror in Pari Lok. She challenges Rani Pari that she will surely destroy Earth and spread evil, while Rani Pari will not be able to do anything. She tells her that she is the one who has hypnotized children, due to which they are behaving strangely. She says her that she will soon find the child and challenges Ranipari to save her beloved child if she can. Many years ago, it was the time for Maa Pari (mother of the fairies) to pass her throne to another fairy. All the fairies thought that she would choose Bhali Pari as her successor as she had saved Pari Lok from an accident. Maa Pari felt that Bhali Pari wanted to become Rani Pari, that's why she had saved Pari Lok. She was too selfish as she only wanted to rule and not to serve. Considering this, Maa Pari declared Bahuroopi Pari (Multiform Fairy), as the Rani Pari (Queen Fairy). Maa Pari gets retired from her position and fortakes mausoleum (Akhand Samadhi). An infuriated Bhali Pari, burning in the fire of anger and jealousy, she destroys her existence and her spirit transforms into Bhayankar Pari, the empress of evil powers. She vows to avenge the betrayal that she had boreed. When Baalveer was born, Bhayankar Pari tries to capture the child but Rani Pari comes at the right moment and saves him. Rani Pari gets unconscious due to Bhayankar Pari's attack, but a maid in that house takes Baal Veer with him leaving Bhayankar Pari furious. A fairy takes him to Parilok, but some fairies are not satisfied with that so everyone went to Rani palace to see Rani pari. Rani pari, the Queen of Parilok, the mother of Baalveer,fairies and the residents of the Fairy realm. She is the sole decision-maker. She recognizes the child, suddenly motherly love awakens in her heart and told everyone that thereafter he will reside in Parilok. Some fairies are not satisfied with her decision but they can't disobey Rani Pari's words. She also named him "Baalveer" and from then she only takes care of him as his mother and he is the first human to have resided in the Fairy Realm. Later he was accepted by all the fairies. Ranipari decides that Baalveer is the only one who can defeat Bhayankar Pari and make an end to her terror. Rani Pari announces that Baalveer will be awarded the power of seven fairies. Some fairies disagree with this and criticize Rani Pari's decision. But, Ranipari has full faith on her son Baalveer. So nobody can't disobey Ranipari's words. In a prestigious ceremony Baalveer is blessed with the power of Saptapari (Cabinet of Seven prominent fairies of Pari Lok) which consists of :- Natkhat Pari (Mischievous Fairy) Bhatkaati Pari (Diverting Fairy) Atkaati Pari (Obstacle Fairy) Vijhdar Pari (Electric Fairy) Baal Pari (Tress Fairy) Aar-Paar Pari (Across Fairy) Gaal Pari (Cheek Fairy) and also with the powers of Ranipari and her blessings. Rani Pari sends Baalveer to Earth. She guides him to a cottage-tea-shop owner who employs him. Later when Baalveer, as a waiter, meets Mahesh Dagli, the sole earner from Dagli household in Mumbai, India; he adopts Baalveer as his own child seeing his pitiful condition (unaware of his true identity). Baalveer introduces himself as Ballu. The Dagli family is known as 'Saath Sachhon ka Parivar' (The Family of Seven who never lie). It consists of Mahesh, Mahesh's father (Amit), his mother (Kasturi), his wife (Smita), his children Manav and Meher, and his younger brother (Rocky). Bhayankar Pari plots various times in order to kill Baalveer and fairies, but fails in each attempt. In her attempts to destroy Pari Lok, she also summoned Tabahi-Pari, but failed. Later, she turned Rani Pari into stone and attained the kingdom of Pari Lok by deceiving Baalveer. However, the fairies under the guidance of Baalveer, get Pari Tara and Raj-Dand (Supreme powers of Pari Lok) back from Bhayankar and capture her in prison. While capturing her, they accidentally release Bhawandar Pari (Tycoon Fairy). She secretly prevents them from curing Rani Pari. Finally, when the fairies cure Rani Pari and she turns to her original form. Everyone was happy to see their mother back. Bhawandar manages to free Bhayankar Pari from the prison. Rani Pari attacks Bhayankar Pari with no delay, but Bhayankar tricks Bhawandar Pari and the weapon used by Rani Pari makes an end to Bhawandar Pari. Again Bhayankar Pari uses various methods to spread evil but fails. She also summons Nukeeli and Kateeli Pari, but even that doesn't work. Then finally, she resurrects her best friend - Chhal Pari for her mission. The fairies organise a Satkar Samaroh (Honouring Ceremony) for Baalveer to appreciate his achievements. During the dance session, when there was noise all around, Chhal Pari shoots an arrow at Baalveer and herself sticks to Rani Pari's wand which disables it. Rani Pari sees the arrow moving towards Baalveer, but unable to use her wand, she moves in front of Baalveer and the arrow strikes her. She sacrifices herself to save her beloved son Baalveer. After some days Ranipari came in front of Baalveer and says that she loves him very much and always be there with him forever. The fairies and Baalveer make an end to Chhal Pari, but Bhayankar manages to survive. Soon, Naaraz-Taaraz Pari realise their mistakes and admit their true identity in front of Baal Pari and other fairies. They forgive them and Naaraz-Taaraz tell them the way to kill Bhayankar. In the same manner, the fairies and Baalveer manage to kill Bhayankar Pari. Soon, the natural resources of Pari Lok through their extra-ordinary signs convey to the fairies that a new Rani Pari will be entering Pari Lok through a special seashell of Pavan Nadi (Holy River). A new Rani Pari originates from the Pavan Nadi and is welcomed with great pomp and show. She raises a necessity of another hero who could help Baalveer. The fairies finally find another hero and name him Jaiveer. The new Rani Pari asks Baalveer and Jaiveer, as a mode of training, to reach a special palace by crossing the Sandhi Nadi (Connecting River). While doing so, Jaiveer secretly makes Baalveer slip into the river and Baalveer is declared to be dead. Pari Lok mourns the loss of Baalveer. The fairies as per the order of new Rani Pari, donate their powers to Jaiveer and immediately, the environment of Pari Lok turns strange. The wands of fairies and their powers are absorbed by Rani Pari and she is revealed to be none other than Bhayankar Pari herself. Jaiveer was also formed by her. The fairies get shocked on seeing her alive. She reveals that as she sensed that the fairies were planning to kill her, she had already arranged for a new body, that her spirit entered after her death. Then she sealed the shell from which Rani Pari was going to originate and herself, disguised as Rani Pari. She then captivates the fairies as her maids and Jaiveer starts spreading evil on Earth. The shining Royal blue shades of Pari Lok blacken out and black fumes get all over. By tricking Bhayankar, Natkhat Pari and Naaraz Pari obtain their other fairies' magical wands and powers. As they go to open the magical shell, Bhayankar again manges to capture them, but Natkhat Pari accidentally slips into Sandhi Nadi, the same river in which Baalveer had fallen. Ironically, Natkhat finds herself on a seashore of Mumbai. She realises that the river in which she had slipped into, was Sandhi Nadi and magically connects Pari Lok to another planets. Thus, she infers that in this way, Baalveer would also be alive. She manages to find Baalveer and makes him remember his memories. Both of them unlock the real new Rani Pari and she regains the powers of Pari Lok from Bhayankar Pari. Bhayankar Pari escapes from there. Then, the new Rani Pari and Baalveer kill Jaiveer and she is welcomed in Pari Lok with great pomp and show. Pari Lok is cured from the effect of Bhayankar Pari and it again starts shining in its shades. Rani Pari fortakes the throne of Pari Lok and guides and helps Baalveer in his mission. New Ranipari also take care of Baalveer and fairies similar to previous Ranipari whose love is eternal. Whenever Baalveer had a confusion he first discusses it with Ranipari like previous Ranipari whom he loves very much.Bhayankar Pari again uses various methods to destroy Pari Lok and even resurrects Mahabhasma Pari but failed. Bhayankar kills Natkhat Pari, when the later was in the disguise of Baalveer.
